MEN'S HEAD COACH BILL WILLIAMS

A native of Mankato, Minnesota, Bill Williams enters his third season as Red Dragon head coach. Williams, in his first two campaigns became the only C-State men's coach ever to enjoy back-to-back 16-game winning seasons. His 1981-82 team went 16-11 and last year the Dragons finished 16-7. Williams was named the State University of New York Athletic Conference (SUNYAC) Coach of the Year in 1983.

Williams, who grew up in nearby Homer, N.Y., graduated from Homer High and earned a bachelor's degree from Cortland State in 1969. Between 1966-69, he scored 910 points and remains ninth on the all-time C-State list.

Prior to coming to Cortland State, Williams had taught and coached at Elmira Free Academy, Aquinas High in Rochester, Notre Dame High in Batavia and McGraw Central School. He holds a master's degree from Elmira College. Williams served as assistant Cortland coach to Al Stockholm for two seasons before taking over as head mentor.

An instructor in physical education at Cortland, Williams and his wife, Phyllis, and three children, Seth, Christopher and Scott, reside in Cortland.

WOMEN'S HEAD COACH PAT SMOUSE

Since becoming head coach in 1981, Pat Smouse has added a dimension of stability and a winning attitude to the Red Dragon women's hoop program. C-State went 5-13 her first year, but closed out at 13-13 last year to top the number of Dragon victories in the previous three seasons combined.

A native of Mount Pleasant, Pa., Smouse played field hockey, basketball and ran track at Slippery Rock. Between 1974-78, she was an instructor and coach at North Clarion High in Lapeer, Pa. In 1979, Smouse became head basketball coach at Thiel College in Greenville, Pa., and led the team to its first winning season in 53 years. With 12 freshmen, Thiel went from last place in the Keystone Conference to tie for first place. Smouse earned a 22-4 record at Thiel during her two-year coaching stint.

Smouse received her master's degree from Slippery Rock State College in 1979. While at Cortland, she has served as an assistant women's track coach. She is single and resides in Marathon.

David Bleau (left), shattered scoring records as a Cortland State player in the early 1960's. Above, Bleau nets a long range field goal during a January, 1963, contest against Clarkson. He still holds the Dragon single game scoring mark of 61 points.

Renee Spear
Sophomore
Major: Physical Education

Johnson City, New York
Guard

Another experienced Dragon starter...Renee's forte is her defensive play...Not afraid to shoot the ball...Earned scholastic laurels playing field hockey, basketball and softball at Johnson City High...Renee has five sisters and two brothers...She is the daughter of Frederick and Betty Spear.

Valerie Stone
Sophomore
Major: Physical Education

Lake Luzerne, New York
Forward

Val is C-State's strongest offensive player underneath the basket...Owns an effective turn-around jump...Saw quite a bit of playing time as a freshman...Strong rebounder as well...Concentrating on Sports Management program at Cortland State...Played field hockey, volleyball, basketball and softball at Hadley-Luzerne High...Has two brothers and two sisters...Val is the daughter of Douglas and Beatrice Stone.

Andy Whitcomb
Freshman
Major: Physical Education

New Canaan, Connecticut
Guard/Forward

A freshman who should miss the entire first half of the season due to an injury...Coach Smouse hopes to have Andy's talents on the court for C-State by January...Great outside shooter with rebounding skills...An all-around player who should see a good deal of playing time once healthy...Played field hockey, basketball and softball at St. Luke's High School...Has one brother...Andy is the daughter of Richard and Barbara Whitcomb.

Cynthia Winthrop
Freshman
Major: Physical Education

Merrimack, New Hampshire
Forward

Cindy has an extremely keen court awareness...An intelligent player both with and without the ball...Can make the Dragon offense gel...Good shooter...Played basketball, field hockey and softball at Merrimack High in New Hampshire...Second team all-state in basketball...Cindy is the daughter of Grenville and Nancy Winthrop.
